

Coronavirus Health Emergency

Due Diligence Statement

Malleny Angling Ltd (MA Ltd) take ownership of their responsibilities in respect of reviewing existing rules and procedures relevant to the control of the current health emergency due to COVID 19.

MA Ltd has, and will continue, to comply fully with and implement in so far as is possible, any Government restrictions on social distancing or lockdown. Fishing will only be allowed at Harlaw Reservoir and the area of the bank at Threipmuir Reservoir under the control of MA Ltd, when permitted to do so.

Prior to the commencement of angling activities, MA Ltd has reviewed all its rules, operating procedures and safety guidelines, implementing where applicable, new guidance and recommendations on safety and personal hygiene during the COVID 19 pandemic.

New MA Ltd guidelines apply to MA Ltd members, season permit holders and day permit anglers.

MA Ltd has, to the best of its ability, conveyed all procedural changes and guidelines applicable to anglers electronically, by surface mail and on the MA Ltd website. MA Ltd cannot guarantee the recipients have received or read the communication.

MA Ltd has no staff and accepts that the company has no legal authority to impose any recommended guidelines, nor is the company able to monitor or police such guidelines. Reliance is on anglers to act responsibly and comply with MA Ltd guidance.

These changes to existing rules and procedures are included in the documents listed below, which form part of this statement:

- Formal letter to members from the chairman of MA Ltd, endorsed by the management committee
- MA Ltd – Coronavirus/COVID 19 – Change to normal operating procedures
- MA Ltd – Guidelines during Coronavirus Outbreak

MA Ltd will review its rules, operating procedures and guidelines when applicable and if deemed necessary.
